JUDGMENT

Among the issues raised, petitioner's claim for admission does not survive as petitioner already got admission. So far as fee concession is concerned, Standing Counsel for the University submitted that concession is reimbursed by the Government and according to the Government, the course is ineligible for fee concession. In the circumstances, the University is free to charge fees and it is for the petitioner to get whatever financial assistance that is available with the Government directly or by getting direction from the Government to the University. The W.P. is therefore closed.
